and Food by Design, along with restaurants Amano Pasta, Buca, Jamie's Italian and Piano Piano.

Presented by BMO Wealth Management in collaboration with Mantella Corporation, $820,000 was raised to re-imagine the SickKids campus as part of the SickKids VS Limits campaign. The funds will be used to help build new clinical facilities designed to attract world-class medical leaders and provide the best comfort and care to children and their families. Bravo to co-chairs Molly Fitzpatrick and Lucinda Kogan.

At the annual Joe Carter Classic afterparty, you know the bottle-service will be flowing. Hundreds of tricked-out guests hit the Ritz-Carlton for the see-and-be-seen party where Wyclef Jean performed – and reigned supreme. Others making appearances included Canadian rapper, record producer, Kardinal Offishall and actor Jeremy Piven. The celebration went off without a hitch, and who would have expected otherwise with party producer Corey Mandell at the helm?

The golf tournament which pairs avid golfers with top celebrities from the worlds of sports and entertainment raises money to benefit the Joe Carter Scholarship Fund and the Joe Carter Family Support Fund.
